Amend the Law relating to Jurors in Ireland so far as A.D. 1893.
relates to the County of Cork.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the Jurors, Ireland (County Cork) Act, 1895. Short title.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Juries Act (Ireland), 1871, and the Acts amending the same (but subject in all other respects to the provisions of the said Acts), the Common Law Procedure Amendment Act (Ireland), 1881, as to county of Cork juries, so far as the same relates to the division of jurors (other than special jurors) at assizes into two sets, and to the attendance and service of jurors when so divided, including the eighth section of the said last-mentioned Act, shall still be deemed to regulate the summoning and attendance of jurors in the said county. The direction of the judge or commissioners of assize to divide the jurors into two sets shall be contained in the precept to such sheriff for the return of jurors for the assizes, and the sheriff in preparing the panel for any assizes pursuant to any precept so directing shall prepare one panel in accordance with the provisions of the Juries (Ireland) Act, 1871, and the Acts amending the same, and shall divide such panel into two equal parts, each to contain one of the said two sets of jurors.

Common jury panel in county of Cork may be divided pursuant to the 27 & 28 Vict. c. 28.

Jurors, Ireland (County Cork).
